

Environmental Specialist II (Grand Island) – NDEE

The NDEE Public Drinking Water Program is currently accepting applications for an Environmental Program Specialist II. This position is currently located in Grand Island, but an alternate location will be considered within the designated field area, and serve as the Drinking Water Program’s Field Representative for an nine-county region in South-Central Nebraska (Field Area #5), including Grand Island, Hastings, Kearney, Holdrege, and Minden. The closing date for this position is August 5, 2024. For more information, or to apply, please visit the “Nebraska State Jobs” website at <http://statejobs.nebraska.gov/>.